Henry Solomon born London, England December 3, 1826 died Savannah, Georgia June 4, 1904. In 1851 H. Solomon immigrated to America. Between 1854 and 1863 he lived in South Carolina. By January 1864 his residence was Augusta, Georgia until 1870 when he appears in the Savannah City Directory. From 1873 until April 1, 1882, he was jointly in partnership with his brother N. E. Solomon in the firm of Solomon Brothers. July 1, 1882 he formed the firm of Solomon and Son with his son Alexander Perry Solomon. He died at his residence 219 Jones Street.

Henry Solomon was born December 3, 1826 in London England.¹ He immigrated from England to America approximately in the year 1851. In August of 1854 was born a daughter Mirriam S. Solomon in the state of South Carolina. Sarah Alexander born in London, England came to America in 1853 and married Henry Solomon in 1857.² On October 23, 1857 their son, Alexander Perry Solomon, was born in Hamburg, South Carolina.³ May 1861 another son, Julian M. Solomon² was born possibly in Hamburg, South Carolina. Henry Solomon, Edgefield County is listed in the 1860 South Carolina census index but the 1860 census is not available.

By January 1864 Henry Solomon is employed by Loeser Baun in Augusta, Georgia.⁴ February 18, 1864 in the city of Augusta is born Georgia B. Solomon.⁵ June 8, 1864 Henry sends a letter to his brother, Nathan E. Solomon in Victoria-Vancouver Island, British Columbia about the effects of the Civil War on the region and on friends.⁴ According to Calvin's Augusta City Director 1885-1886 Henry Solomon, merchant, lived on Telfair below City Hall. In November of 1866 Nathan H. Solomon was born.² In the 1867 Pughe Augusta Directory H. Solomon, merchant, lived on Telfair between Center and Washington. On December 7, 1868 a son Harry M. Solomon was born,⁶ the last to be born in Augusta, Georgia.

November 19, 1869 N. E. Solomon, wholesale grocer, advertised in the Savannah Morning News.⁷ In the 1870 Savannah City Directory brother Henry Solomon appears, residence 60 Bryan Street. In the 1871 Savannah City Directory Henry Solomon is listed as a salesman with N. E. Solomon and shares residence, 172 Harris Street, with his brother. It is also possible that at some time in the year 1871 the birth of Dolly Jennett Solomon.⁸ In 1872 the name Solomon Borthers appears in the Savannah Morning News on May 4 in a list of merchants who had acquired liquor licenses for 1872⁹ and on July 5 as agents for the "Anchor" line of steamers.¹⁰ In 1873 Solomon Brother made its first appearance in the Tax Digest of that year. August 23, 1873 Solomon Brothers was appointed agents for the "White Star" line of steamers.¹¹ September of 1873 the son Arthur W. Solomon was born.² 1874 Savannah City Directory listed Solomon Brothers (N. E. and H. Solomon) at 173-175 Bay Street, residence of N. E. Solomon at 173 Jones Street and Henry Solomon still residing at 172 Harris Street. March 19, 1874 Solomon Brothers are the appointed agents for the sale of the celebrated Trenton Wine and Butter Crackers.¹² On July 29, 1875 Henry Solomon is among the names of passengers on the steamship General Barnes, returning from New York.¹³ October 1, 1875, Solomon Brothers is again among the businesses who have been issued a liquor license.¹⁴ June 4, 1876 Solomon Brothers is noted for having received a consignment of Livingston Gilt Edge and New York State butter, cream cheese and also 2 cases smoked breasts which will be closed at low figures.¹⁵ July 7, 1876 among those listed as acquiring liquor license, Solomon Brothers.¹⁶ In October of 1876 Fredrick Earl Solomon was born,² Henry and Sarah's youngest child. January 16, 1879 Henry Solomon is among the members of Octavus Cohen Memorial Committee of the congregation Mickve Israel.¹⁷ On November 15, 1877 Solomon Brothers received an ample supply of D. D. Gibben's dry and sweet scupper-nong white and red wine, which was sold in order to introduce it to the area market.¹⁸ Around August of 1877 Issac P. Mendes became rabbi of Temple Mickve Israel, among the three men appointed to a committee that was to wait upon Mendes needs was a H. Solomon.¹⁹ On March 9, 1878 in a newspaper article Henry Solomon is named as a trustee of the mortgage bonds for the Tybee Improvement Company.²⁰ On March 30, 1878 Arthur W. Solomon is listed among the "Roll of Honor" at the Savannah Academy.²¹ In the liquor license listing for the second quarter, July 4, Solomon Brothers appears.²² The 1879 Savannah City Directory states that his son Alexander P. Solomon works for Solomon Brothers. February 11, 1879 Alexander Perry Solomon married Carrie Basler. They were married by the Justice of the Peace, Chatham County.²³ At the January 22 meeting of the Tybee Improvement Company Henry Solomon was among those elected as directors.²⁴ On September 13, 1879 for $200.00 Henry Solomon purchased from Benjamin Branell an oceanfront lot, Lot Number 10 on Tybee Island.²⁵ About five o'clock Thursday October 23, 1879, a black male entered the Solomon house at 172 Harris Street and systematically began gathering any loose wearing apparel. The noise then awoke Julian M. Solomon who seized his revolver and started after the burglar. The man then fled, bounding over a fence just in time to run into Policeman Neve who promptly delivered him to the police barracks.²⁶ 1880 was a census year, Henry Solomon and family appears residence 172 Harris Street (See Appendix). Miriam S. Solomon, the oldest child, married Adolph Berg of San Antonia, Texas on March 17, 1880.

In the March 14 issue of the Savannah Morning News was an article exposing John Melvin, a partner of Solomon Brothers, of larceny. On the morning of said day a local policeman on his regular rounds noticed the Solomon Brothers water closet padlock. Upon investigation he discovered a dozen bottles of liquor, two and half gross of matches and a bag containing fifteen pounds of ground pepper.²⁸ On April 27, 1880, Henry Solomon appears in the news. At 9:30 AM April 26, Samuel Solomon entered Solomon Brothers and proceeded to attempt to kill Henry Solomon with a pocket knife but only cutting his left arm from the shoulder down. I. Berg, a store clerk and a young son of Henry Solomon, apprehended Samuel Solomon until an officer arrived. The reason for the attack is the failure by Samuel Solomon to pay a bill owed to Solomon Brothers which sued and made a levy on S. Solomon's property.²⁹ July 17, 1880 Henry Solomon purchased from Thomas Wakefield for $125.00 another parcel of land on Tybee Island on Main Street, Ward 1, Lot 5.³⁰ On February 23, 1881 Savannah suffered from the most destructive fire that had occurred within her limit in over a year. The store occupied by George A. Hudson on Bay Street west of Barnard caught fire, the roof of said establishment turned black and fell upon the rear portion of the building occupied by Solomon Brothers.³¹ On Saturday August 25, 1881 tragedy struck during a sea "tempest". The substantial oceanfront home of Henry Solomon was blown down and was soon a blaze. Most of the occupants were rescued but Mrs. Georgiana Wolf, her infant son, Hallie, and a young brother Joshua Falk perished.³² During the catastrophe several trunks were removed and plundered of approximately $2,000. worth of valuables. September 2 Benjamin Haneny, a steward at McVeigh's restaurant, was arrested for the robbery. Further investigation revealed the involvement of Frank Latre and a woman, name not given. A witness reported that the trunks were kept under the house at the rear and Haneny obtained an axe and cut them out after the building had fallen down and was on fire. All concerned were prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law due to the circumstances.³³ On January 22, 1882, Henry Solomon and N. E. Solomon joined the Citizen Sanitary Association.³⁴ On February 26, 1882, fire strikes again, Smoke was seen coming from the upper portion of the extensive grocery establishment of Solomon Brothers. In spite of the immense quantities of water poured into the building, it was impossible to stop the progress of the fire. The building and entire stock was destroyed, estimated loss $90,000.00, in insurance coverage $54,000.00.³⁵ March 1, 1882 William O'Hearn, a watchman for Solomon Brothers, was stabbed by a black male. O'Hearn had ordered the male, who had been loafing around the establishment to leave; the assailant refused and plunged a large dirk (dagger) into the watchman's left breast. As a response O'Hearn drew his pistol and shot the man who then escaped.³⁶ On April 1, 1882 came the end of a decade for Solomon Brothers. The dissolution of co-partnership of the firm Solomon Brothers with N. E. Solomon retiring and Henry Solomon continuing the business.³⁷

A new beginning on July 1, 1882 Henry Solomon announced the association with son Alexander Perry Solomon in the wholesale general merchandise business under the firm of Henry Solomon and Son.³⁸ February 12, 1883 Solomon and Son were among the participates in the grand procession in honor of the Sesquicentennial of the Settlement of Georgia.³⁹ In the November 8, 1883 edition of the Savannah Morning News Henry Solomon is listed among subscribers who had agreed to buy into the property known as Oglethorpe Barracks at a minimum fixed price approximately $674.00.⁴⁰ Julian M. Solomon, second son of Henry Solomon, was appointed and commissioned by the Superior Court a Notary Public, on the day March 26, 1884.⁴¹ April 8, 1884 marked festivity at the home of Henry and Sarah Solomon. Their second daughter, Georgia B., married Joseph S. Oppenheimer. The couple was married by David Levy of Charleston, South Carolina.⁴² Two days later, April 10, 1884, a a directors meeting of the Board of Trade various committees were appointed for the next year, Henry Solomon was a member of the Groceries Committee.⁴³ In the 1985 Savannah City Directory, Julian Solomon is a travel agent for Solomon and Son and Nathan H. Solomon is working as an assistant bookkeeper for Solomon and Son. At some time in 1885, Julian M. Solomon married Irene Paige somewhere outside of Savannah.² By the 1886 Savannah City Directory, son Harry M. Solomon was employed as a clerk at Solomon and Son and grandson Julian M. Solomon, Jr. had joined the business. Arthur Solomon appears again on the Savannah Academy "Roll of Honor" for the first scholastic month.⁴⁴ On April 21, 1887, a petition was filed for the incorporation of the Pioneer Steam Brick

Company and on June 8 the Article of Incorporation was issued to the petitioners; Henry Solomon was among the petitioners.⁴⁵ In the June 5 closing exercises of the Savannah Academy Arthur Solomon was presented with an honor⁴⁶ and October 29 Arthur Solomon, along with younger brother Fredrick appears on the Savannah Academy "Roll of Honor" first scholastic month.⁴⁷ On the evening of July 24, 1887, Henry and Sarah left Savannah bound for Minnetonka, Minnesota to visit a brother, possibly Nathan E. Solomon.⁴⁸ Later that summer, August 27, Henry returned from extended travels in the west.⁴⁹ On May 17, 1888, a special notice appeared in the city paper listing those merchants, Solomon and Son included, who had agreed to close their place of business on Saturdays at two o'clock between May 12 and August 1, 1888.⁵⁰ On the evening train August 17, 1888, Henry and Sarah left to visit Warm Springs, GEorgia.⁵¹

May 2, 1889 marked a change in the firm Henry Solomon and Son, the additions of Adolph Berg, Julian M. Solomon and Nathan H. Solomon to the firm.⁵² Fifteen days later on May 17, 1889, Harry M. Solomon died at the age of 20;⁵³ cause of death Chronic Eutentis.⁵⁴ On July 6, 1889, Henry Solomon repurchased for $300.00 from the Tybee Beach Company the parcel of land in Ward One, known as Lot 5.⁵⁵ Solomon and Son purchased twelve lots in Marshall Ward for $5,000.00 for the City and Suburban Railway of Savannah, Georgia. The lots are located between Henry Street and Anderson Street, Cuyler Street and Cemetery Street.⁵⁶ On the evening of February 28, 1890 at his residence, 172 Harris Street, Mr. Henry Solomon hosted a society party, with music under the direction of Severo Stini.⁵⁷ In the first municipal elections of Tybee Town held on April 7, 1890, Henry Solomon was elected as an alderman.⁵⁸ As a Tybee Town alderman he attended a dinner on August 10 given by Captain Henry Blun at the Ocean House for the Mayor A. C. Ulmer and the town council members.⁵⁹ Solomon and Son sold four lots of Marshall Ward to Gertude Berg for $3,534.83, on May 19, 1890 between Cuyler and Cemetery Streets on Henry Street.⁶⁰ Upon G. Berg's move to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Solomon and Son bought back the Marshall Ward lots for $3,580.00⁶¹ At some time in August of 1890, Henry's youngest daughter, Dolly J. Solomon, left for a visit and tour in the North, returning February 4, 1891.⁶² March 30, 1892 Dolly J. married Fredrick J. Davis of New York City. The couple was married by Issac Mendes of Temple Michve Israel Savannah, Georgia.⁶³ In the Savannah City Directory 1892, Henry Solomon and Son (H., A.P., J.M. and N.H. Solomon and A. Berg) had moved to 188-192 Bay Street. Henry Solomon and family according to the Savannah City Directory 1893 are boarding at 64 Bull Street, until 1898 when his residences changed to 219 Jones Street.⁶⁴

May 29, 1894 Solomon and Son purchased a large tract of land located at the junction of Skidaway and Thunderbolt Shell Roads, containing ten acres of land for the sum of $2,500.00 from the firm Merchants and Mechanics Land Company,⁶⁵ which Solomon and Son distributed in lots measuring 34 feet frontage, 90 feet in depth called La Partoville. Each lot was presented to said person by Solomon and Son in consideration for 200 LaParto cigar certificates. The distribution of ten lots sold between 1894 and 1897 is presented in the remainder of this paragraph.⁶⁶ Only one lot was sold in 1894 to the firm of Wilkins, Neely and Jones on August 1 went lot 17 on Thunderbolt Shell Road.⁶⁷ In 1895 three lots were dispersed on July 15 Lot Number 8 was presented to Perla S. Swayer⁶⁸ while on November 18 the adjoining lot, Lot Number 33 went to Perla Swayer Solomon.⁶⁹ T. O. Hand acquired on August 7 Lot Number 48 on Clara Avenue.⁷⁰ 1896 showed four lots being distributed. Lot Number 42 went to May C. Oppenheimer January 6, 1896.⁷¹ On January 15 Albert N. Entelman took possession of Lot Number 74.⁷² Mrs. L. E. McEachin of Montgomery County gained Lot Number 34 on February 13.⁷³ While the one that year was Lot Number 68 on September 29 and to W. M. Harvey.⁷⁴ Only one lot was sold in 1897, Lot Number 59 went on July 6, 1897 to the firm of Carlisle and Ward.⁷⁵

H. Solomon and Son made other real estate purchases. On December 31, 1894 Solomon and Son purchased Lot 20 of Crawford from May A. C. Doshier for the sum of $250.00.⁷⁶ The northwest portion of Lot 19, Washington Ward, was purchased April 6, 1896 from John Tietzen for $1,400.00.⁷⁷ Two store related purchases were also made. On January 3, 1895 for $357.90, the stock, books and current business of John Quint was obtained.⁷⁸ One complete electric fan was bought February 16, 1897 for $25.00 from J. D. Wacasser.⁷⁹ Through a debt claim on Horace H. Morgan, March 31, 1896, Lot 33 and Block B in the village of Pooler was gained by Solomon and Son.⁸⁰ While on February 6, 1900 at Public Auction for the sum of $100.00

Station Number One known as Pooler, containing 10 acres was acquired from the firm of Jackson and Torrance.⁸¹ September 2, 1898 to John G. Butler, Henry Solomon sold the oceanfront lot, Number 10 and Main Street Lot Number 5 on Tybee Island for $500.00.⁸² July 11, 1899 Henry Solomon purchased for $75.00 Lot Number 75 Tilton Tract, Tybee Island from John G. Butler.⁸³ Then on August 17, 1901 he sold the property to the United States Government for $125.00.⁸⁴ 1900 was a census year, according to the census living at 219 Jones Street was Henry, Sarah, sons Nathan, H., Arthur W. and Fred E. plus daughter Miriam Berg, her husband and two sons (see Appendix). November 28, 1901 Rabbi Issac P. Mendes married another Solomon heir, Fredrick Earl Solomon to Marie Elirlich.⁸⁵ According to the 1902 Savannah City Directory the firm of Henry Solomon and Son was now only Henry and Alexander Perry Solomon. The store location had also changed from the Bay Street address to 3-5 Jefferson Street. August 8, 1902 Henry Solomon sold to his son Arthur W. Solomon for $5.00 three and half lots in Marshall Ward.⁸⁶ In the 1903 Savannah City Directory Solomon and Son now occupied 1 through 5 on Jefferson Street.

At eleven o'clock June 4, 1904 at his 219 Jones Street residence Henry Solomon died having suffered heart trouble three days prior.⁸⁷ On December 27, 1904 the Division Deed was filed, everything being left to Sarah Solomon, the business remained with Alexander Perry Solomon.⁸⁸
